

CONTENTS

Preface	5
Part 1	8
Chapter 1. Stylistics and its object	8
1.1. Stylistics as a linguistic discipline	8
1.2. Stylistics of Decoding	10
1.3. Text as a Stylistics object	12
1.4. Types of textual analysis. Meaning of context	14
Chapter 2. The norm of the language and departures from the norm	17
2.1. The problem of word choice	17
2.2. Dimensions of registers	19
2.3. Meaning of phrasal verbs	23
2.4. The problem of the norm and departure from the norm	25
2.5. Semi-marked structures	29
Chapter 3. Expressive means of the language	32
3.1. Stylistic devices	32
3.2. Types of foregrounding	33
3.2.1. Convergence	33
3.2.2. Coupling	35
3.2.3. "The principle of defeated expectancy"	37
3.3. Tropes	40
3.4. Epithet	47
Chapter 4. Levels of stylistic analysis	54
4.1. Phonetic Stylistics	54
4.2. Morphological aspect of Stylistics	60
4.3. Stylistic aspect of Syntax	65
4.3.1. Inversion	65
4.3.2. Reduplication	67
4.4. Expressiveness of negations	70
4.5. Textual implication	71

Part 2. Interpretation of the text	76
1. Interpretation: general	76
2. Steps of interpretation	78
3. Stylistic analysis of the novel “The Face of an Angel” by Brian Stableford	81
4. Sample of conceptual analysis. DREAM as a basic concept in the novel “The Great Gatsby”	98
References	103